

National Park Service (NPS) PWSR website

<https://www.nps.gov/orgs/1912/partnership-wild-and-scenic-river-contacts.htm>

Eightmile River, CT (26 Miles Designated in 2008)
Outstanding Resources: Watershed hydrology, water quality, unique species and natural communities, geology, watershed ecosystem, and cultural landscapes.
<http://www.eightmileriver.org/>

Farmington River, CT (14 Miles Designated in 1994) a.k.a. Upper Farmington or West Branch Farmington
Outstanding Resources: Rich history, recreation, fish and wildlife. <http://www.farmingtonriver.org/>

Great Egg Harbor, NJ (129 Miles Designated in 1992)
Outstanding Resources: Threatened and endangered species, resting, breeding and feeding areas for water fowl, rich history, recreation, and scenic vistas. (Listed separately as a "Unit" but managed as a PWSR)
<http://www.gehwa.org/>

Lamprey River, NH (24 Miles Designated in 1996 and additional miles in 2000)
Outstanding Resources: Anadromous fish, including herring and shad, historical sites, and diverse habitats.
<http://www.lampreyriver.org/>

Lower Delaware River, PA & NJ (78 Miles Des. in 2000)
Outstanding Resources: Water quality, natural resources, historic resources, recreation, and open space.
<https://www.lowerdelawarewildandscenic.org/>

Maurice River, NJ (36 Miles Designated in 1993)
Outstanding Resources: Part of the Atlantic Flyway, pristine habitats that support endangered species and are vital for the migration of birds, waterfowl, rails, and fish.
<https://www.cumauriceriver.org/>

Missisquoi and Trout Rivers, VT (46.1 Miles Des. in 2014)
Outstanding Resources: Scenic and Recreational Resources including swimming holes and paddling; Natural Resources including waterfalls, cascades and gorges; Historic and Cultural Resources including covered bridges.
<https://www.vtwsr.org/>

Musconetcong River, NJ (29 Miles Designated in 2006)
Outstanding Resources: Wildlife and critical habitats, historic and prehistoric, scenic and recreational.
<https://www.musconetcong.org/>

Sudbury-Assabet-Concord River, MA (29 Mi Des. in 1999)
Outstanding Resources: History, scenery, recreation, ecology and value to American literature. Birthplace of the American Revolution.
<http://www.sudbury-assabet-concord.org/>

Taunton River, MA (40 Miles Designated 2009)
Outstanding Resources: Agriculture, ecology and biological diversity, estuary, fisheries, history and archaeology, and recreation. <http://www.tauntonriver.org/>

Westfield River, MA (78 Miles Designated in 1993)
Outstanding Resources: Native trout fishery, geology including falls and gorges, spectacular mountain scenery, unique dry stone arch railway bridges.
<http://www.westfieldriverwildscenic.org/>

Wekiva River, FL (41.6 Miles Designated in 2000)
Outstanding Resources: Scenery, recreation, geology, and diverse habitats support threatened and endangered species including one of the few remaining Florida Black Bear populations.
<http://www.wekivawildandscenicriversystem.com/>

White Clay Creek, DE & PA (199 Miles Designated in 2000)
Outstanding Resources: Scenic, recreational, historical, geological, and biological resources including the federally listed endangered Bog Turtle and Delaware's most extensive remaining Piedmont Forest.
<http://whiteclay.org/>

Study Rivers

The Wild and Scenic Rivers Act was amended to authorize a Study for the following rivers:

Lower Farmington River and Salmon Brook Wild and Scenic Study, CT in 2005
<http://lowerfarmingtonriver.org/>

Nashua River, MA in 2014
<https://www.wildandscenicnashuarivers.org/>

Wood-Pawcatuck River (WPWA), RI in 2014
<http://www.wpwa.org/wildandscenic.htm>

York River, ME in 2014
<http://www.yorkrivermaine.org/>